

NS Rate-Base Program

The Rate-Base Program is a competitive procurement put forth by the Province of Nova Scotia to obtain up to 350MW of transmission connected renewable low-impact electricity solutions from Proponents partnering with Mi'kmaq communities, Municipalities, and Underrepresented Groups. Projects must reach COD before December 31, 2025 and have a maximum size of 100 MW.

Typical Project Timeline

1. Land acquisition

2. Preliminary Site Analysis & Design

3. Environmental Assessment Field Surveys & Reporting

4. PPA Award & Ongoing Interconnection Studies

5. Environmental Assessment & Other Permitting

6. Project Design Completed

7. WTGs Ordered

Project Development (2020 - 2022)

